COUNTRY MUSIC STAR JEFF TUTTLE TO PERFORM LIVE AT RECOVERY DAY CELEBRATION

Syracuse, NY—Prevention Network announced today that country music star Jeff Tuttle will give a free live performance during this year's Recovery Day celebration at the Syracuse Inner Harbor on Saturday, September 13, 2008. The country music recording artist will sing with his band during the free family event, which takes place from 10am to 2pm. Tuttle's Syracuse performance is one of several on a multi-city tour to promote his latest CD, "Livin' Like a Millionaire (Ain't Got A Dime)." Mr. Tuttle will be available for media interviews on Friday afternoon, September 12, 2008, at Prevention Network. Please call in advance to request an interview. The event is Central New York's 2nd annual Recovery Day, held in recognition of National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month, which is observed in September each year. The event includes a children's fun zone, food for sale from local vendors, and information and give-aways provided by numerous community agencies.

Prevention Network has been making Central New York a healthier community since 1949 by providing proven and measurable programs to prevent addictions and address other problem behaviors.
